

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____ Class _____

Quaestio: _____

The BACHELOR

Protestant Reformation Edition

Directions: During the Protestant Reformation, Martin Luther's message of protest and reform grew quickly and gained many supporters, BUT some of them may not have been "there for the right reasons." Watch (or participate in) the episode of "The Bachelor: Protestant Reformation Edition" in class, and complete the chart based on your observations and conclusions. Consider which, if any, of these Protestants truly support the Protestant Movement for sincere religious reasons, and are not just looking to attain secular benefits for themselves.

John Calvin (Protestant Reformer and Leader)

How did he/they show support for the Protestant movement?

Why did he/they support it? Was the motivation religious believe or secular personal gain? Explain.

Get a rose or get sent home? Why?

German Peasants (of the German Peasant Revolt)

How did he/they show support for the Protestant movement?

Why did he/they support it? Was the motivation religious believe or secular personal gain? Explain.

Get a rose or get sent home? Why?

Albert, Duke of Prussia (formerly Grand Master of the Teutonic Order)

How did he/they show support for the Protestant movement?

Why did he/they support it? Was the motivation religious believe or secular personal gain? Explain.

Get a rose or get sent home? Why?

King Henry VIII of England (Head of the Church of England)

How did he/they show support for the Protestant movement?

Why did he/they support it? Was the motivation religious believe or secular personal gain? Explain.

Get a rose or get sent home? Why?

Quaestio: Was the Protestant Reformation motivated more by religious or secular motivations?